

This statement is to document the reasons for CityPAC's minimal administrative expenses. CityPAC is an all volunteer organization. CityPAC receives contributions from individuals and then, makes contributions to only Federal candidates.

CityPAC does not have a physical location. Consequently, there is no rent expense. Mail is received at a P.O. Box, monitored by the officers. CityPAC does not pay employees since all the work is done on a volunteer basis. CityPAC has a phone number. This number is voice mail only. Board members are responsible for checking messages and therefore, CityPAC pays phone expenses. CityPAC has a website and pays a service to host the website. Occasionally, CityPAC will pay for food at meetings, since the workers are volunteer. When CityPAC has fundraising events, expenses associated with the planning and cost of the event are incurred.
